Sample Book: The Glass Orchard

This file is a short sample. Replace book.pdf with your own book.

Chapter 1. The Orchard

Lina keeps the glass orchard on the west hill.

She rings a copper bell when the first pear turns clear.

Visitors may walk the south path only before noon.

Chapter 2. The Kiln

The kiln sits behind the blue gate.

Master Ode fires the kiln on the fourth night of each month.

Three clay keys hang on a nail beside the kiln door.

Chapter 3. The River Road

The river road ends at a white stone marker.

In winter the marker is buried under the ninth step of snow.

Travelers leave a green ribbon if they need a guide back.
